

Poseur of the Year

This is presented by the previous year's winner in the format of a poem to the choice of the previous winner.

Presented by Paul Moore to Brad Markham –

“Most have dived with him before.
Getting ready to dive for him is a chore.
A seal dive he went but not to repent.

With a new toy he jumped in, it was bought on expense.
To take pictures galore, he'd fastened the catch to be sure.
He fooled around in the depths he found.
With seals here there and everywhere.

Back on board after taking great care.
He was suddenly aware his new GoPro was lost.
With a sound of disgust.
“The catch must have bust”.
But do not despair he is fully aware.
He always brings lots of spares.

Back home, unpacked, and relaxed.
A quick look round his toolbox is nowhere to be found.
He's again left it onboard.
Until next year to pick up with other diving gear.

Our Brad and St Abb's.
Oh Dear, Oh Dear.
He's the poser for another year.
Give him a cheer.”
